Mr. Bilal Ahmed Rajput, advocate for petitioner

1. Granted.

2to4. The petitioner has sought correction in date of birth in his service record. However, it appears that the petitioner entered in service in the year 1992 and made no effort to have the alleged discrepancy in the record corrected at the relevant time, but has since came forward when on the verge of retirement. On query posed to learned counsel as to how such a correction could be countenanced at this stage, no cogent response was forthcoming. Indeed it is well settled that such correction can only be sought within the period of time prescribed under the relevant service Rules. The petition, being misconceived, stands dismissed accordingly.
