5. For orders on M.A.No.3958/2017.

10.11.2017.

Mr. Sajid Hussain Mahesar, advocate for the applicants.

Through this Crl. Misc. Application, applicants have impugned the order dated 06.11.2017, passed by the IInd Additional Sessions Judge/Ex-Officio Justice of Peace, Mehar in Crl. Misc. Application No.2261/2017, whereby the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace while allowing the application filed by applicant Abdul Majeed son of Abdul Karim Chandio, under section 22-A & B, Cr.P.C directed the SHO PS Faridabad, for registration of FIR in case from the statement of the applicant a cognizable offence is made out.

At the very outset, learned counsel for the applicants puts on notice to satisfy the Court in respect of illegality or jurisdictional defect in the impugned order passed by the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace. Learned counsel submits that Abdul Majid, the applicant in Crl. Misc. Appln. No.2261/2017 has mala fide intentions against the present applicants and, therefore, he intends to implicate them in false cases.

I am afraid at this stage of the matter it cannot be determined even if applicant Abdul Majid has any mala fide against the present applicants. Even In-charge of a Police Station is duty bound to reduce in writing any information relating to the commission of a cognizable offence in 154, Cr.P.C book. Legislation has placed check and balance, in case a false information is furnished, through Section 182, P.P.C.

This Crl. Misc. Application being devoid of merits is dismissed in limine along with listed applications.
