After arguing at some length, learned counsel for the applicant submits that he would be satisfied and shall not press the bail application if directions are issued to the trial court for concluding the trial within the shortest possible time. Accordingly, the bail application is disposed of with a direction to the trial court to conclude the trial positively within three (3) months. The trial court is also directed that no unnecessary adjournments are granted to either party. In the event the court finds that witnesses are avoiding appearance for recording their evidence, coercive processes shall be issued to secure their attendance.
