Mr. Zaffar Ali Laghari, Advocate for Petitioners

- 1.      Granted.

- 3       Granted subject to all just exceptions

2,4&5.The Petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution, praying that the official Respondents, who are police functionaries, be directed to provide them protection against the private Respondent No.9, as well as to conduct an inquiry against the respondent Nos. 8 and 6, who are said to have submitted a false and fabricated report in the matter of Cr. Misc. Application No. 2397 of 2025 filed by the petitioner’s son, namely Sher Ali, under Section 22-A & B Cr.P.C. which consequently came to be dismissed by the learned Vth Additional Sessions Judge, Hyderabad. However, as it transpires, an application under Section 561-A Cr.P.C. has been preferred in the matter of the dismissal of the aforementioned Cr. Misc. application, which remains pending before this Court. As such, the aforementioned aspect of the so called managed report can be agitated in that proceeding. Furthermore, if the Petitioner desires any further directions in so far as the police officials are concerned beyond the scope of that matter, he may approach the concerned Justice of Peace. The Petition, being misconceived, stands dismissed accordingly.
