Learned counsel for appellant after arguing the matter at some length does not press this appeal and submits that trial Court may be directed to expedite the trial, record evidence and decide suit. Learned counsel for respondents submit that trial Court may be directed to decide the suit subject to all exceptions: deciding the application as well challenging maintainability of suit.

Appeal is accordingly dismissed as not pressed. However, trial Court is directed to decide suit within a period of six months subject to all exceptions, as defined above.
