23.01.2025.

Mr. Iltaf Hussain Surahio, Advocate for the Applicant.

-----

Repeatedly, learned Counsel for the Appellant has been requested to point out the illegality in the Judgment or any observation which will be capricious or arbitrary. He has been repeatedly requested to point out whether there has been a non-reading or misreading of the evidence. On each request made to learned Counsel, he has read Paragraph of 11 of the Judgment and his only argument is that the benefit of doubt was given to the accused when it should not have been because the prosecution had proved its case. Despite repeated request he has not been able to point out even one observation made by learned Judge which tantamounts to a misreading or non-reading of the evidence. Learned Judge in paragraph of 12 has dealt with the evidence at length and at the end of his analyses has reached at the conclusion that the case against the accused could not be proved. Listening to the learned counsel it appears that he would have liked the decision to be different, however; is unable to point out any ground which would allow me to admit this acquittal appeal. Accordingly, this acquittal is dismissed in limine.
