30.06.2022

Mr. Rafique Ahmed K. Abro, advocate for the appellant.

Mr. Ali Anwar Kandhro, Additional Prosecutor General, Sindh

Report of the trial court dated 7.6.2022 have clarified the position whereas; the Accountant report in the matter obtained by the learned counsels present is not being objected to, the same are taken on record. The only question which is prima facie of only a technical nature not disturbing the matter otherwise is that whether the share of the present appellant Jummo Bangulani should have been deposited with the trial court or not. However; as it has already come up that the said share was inadvertently deposited. Learned counsel submits that to remove the said technical element it may be further been ordered that the share of Jummo Bangulani be directed to be transferred from the concerned Sessions Court, to this Court, wherein the same may be invested in Government scheme for providing best benefit to the legal heirs. Ordered accordingly.

Irrespective to the forgiven and without being restricted for the actual transfer as it has already come up that the share/ Diyat stands deposited, the compromise in the present matter stands accepted. Resulting the acquittal of the present appellant and as such directions are issued for his release, if not required in any other custody case.

Matter stands disposed of in above terms.
