Mr. Khan Muhammad Sangi, Advocate for applicants.
Mr. Aftab Ahmed Shar, Addl.PG for State.

ORDER

- 1. Urgency allowed.
- 2. Exemption is granted subject to all just exceptions.
- 3&4. Learned counsel for applicants contends that the version of the applicants has not been considered in respect to the incident wherein their involvement was not present and huge suffering is likely to occur in case the FIR is lodged as per the version of the complainant in the matter which wrongly implicates the present applicants.

 The impugned order is passed under exercise of powers u/s 22-A&B Cr.P.C whereby the learned Justice of Peace having observed that the offence is made out FIR be lodged. Not much can be said as to the occurrence of the incident. In the said circumstances no disturbance to the lodging of the FIR in case of cognizable offence having been occurred is found available. The version thereof is however which is liable to be investigated may be disputed.

In the said circumstances learned Additional Prosecutor General was called upon who extends his no objection in respect to the non-disturbance of the impugned order. However, as the version is in dispute the Investigating Officer, is directed to ensure that no arrest in the matter is to take place without the requisite material and circumstances requiring arrest is available and it is further orders that in case a false FIR is lodged proceedings in accordance with law shall take place.

With the above directions this Crl. Misc. Application stands disposed of alongwith listed applications.
