Learned counsel for the petitioner, after arguing for some length, finally does not found place to press this petition on account of the meager maintenance that has been allowed, however, he states that lately one of the minor sons has expired for whom an application has been filed before the learned executing Court, to which no order has been passed.

The petition stands dismissed as not maintainable, however, the learned executing Court is directed to pass an order on such an application, wherein if in case the beneficiary has expired, the maintenance as to the expired beneficiary is not available.
