Mr. Shakeel Ahmed G. Ansari, advocate for the applicant.

=====

1. Granted.

2. Deferred for the time being.

3. Learned counsel submits that appellant is in custody right from date of his arrest viz. 29.6.2022, however, not a single P.W has been produced by the prosecution, therefore, trial against the appellant has not even been commenced, therefore, he submits that if by issuing directions to the trial Court/1st Additional Sessions Judge, Shikarpur (vide Sessions Case No.420 of 2022 re: State v. Khalid Jatoi) to the effect that case may be concluded within shortest possible time, he under instructions would not press bail application.

Learned Addl. P.G. present in Court in connection with some other cases waives notice and records his no objection for withdrawal of the bail application.

Since the expeditious trial is right of every accused and one can not be deprived of such his right. Moreover the individual can not be kept behind bars for indefinite period without progress in his trial, therefore, in view of above, I am of the considered view that this is a case where direction should be extended to trial Court. In view of statement made by the counsel for the applicant at bar, the trial Court is hereby directed to procure all witnesses and conclude the trial within two months' time, under intimation to this Court. A copy of order shall be sent by fax today to Sessions Judge, Shikarpur for compliance. A copy of order shall also be provided to learned Addl. P.G and Prosecutor General Sindh Karachi for compliance.
