13.12.2017

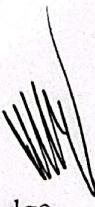

Mr. Ahmed Bux Abro, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. Sardar Ali Shah, DPG for the State.

Learned counsel for the applicant when confronted with the proposition and plea taken by him before this Court which has never been urged by the applicant before the trial Court in view of the case of Zubair PLD 1986 SC 173 submits that he would be satisfied if the trial Court be directed to conclude the trial within shortest possible time and examine the material witnesses. HE next submits that at present case is pending before 1st Civil Judge & JM Jacobabad. Learned DPG has recorded no objection.

Accordingly, instant bail application is disposed of. The learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial by examining all the material witnesses preferably within a period of two months. In case the prosecution is failed to procure its witnesses, the applicant shall be at liberty to file fresh bail application before the trial Court subject to the condition that no adjournment has been sought on his behalf.

Crl. Bail Application stands disposed of in above terms.
