None present for the applicant. The trial Court has furnished its report dated 12.12.2017, which reflects that P.W Mst. Ameenat Khatoon has been examined while complainant Muhammad Hassan is involved in crime No.07/2016 and is absconding, therefore due to fear of his arrest he is not appearing for recording his evidence. As for as remaining witnesses are concerned, the process in terms of Section 88 Cr.P.C has been issued. Learned Advocate for complainant submits that the complainant who has been shown as absconder has obtained bail as per his knowledge and would appear before the trial Court for recording his evidence.

Accordingly, instant bail application is disposed of. The trial Court is directed to conclude the trial within three (03) months leaving the applicant at liberty to repeat his bail application before trial Court if the case is not concluded within stipulated period.
