~~~~~

Learned counsel for the applicant states that he will be satisfied and shall not press instant bail application, if the complainant, who is present in Court today, is directed to appear before the trial Court alongwith his witnesses on forthcoming date and trial Court may be directed to proceed with the case expeditiously and conclude the same preferably within period of one month and in case prosecution fails to produce its witnesses, and case is not concluded within stipulated period, the applicant would be at liberty to move bail application afresh before the trial Court.

Learned D.P.G. does not oppose above proposition. Order accordingly. The bail application stands disposed of in above terms.
