Mr. Muhammad Adil Saed, advocate for the applicant

Mr. Muhammad Fahad Pirzada advocate files vakalatnamas on behalf of respondent which are taken on record.

Learned counsel had contended that four appeals have been decided vide common order devoid of any independent discussion and / or deliberation. He stated that there was no independent discussion and deliberation on the relevant facts, circumstances and / or law. Learned counsel for respondent states that it would be in the interest of justice and revenue for the impugned order to be set aside and the matters be remanded back to the learned Tribunal for adjudication afresh in accordance with law. Learned counsel for the applicant seeks that pending the aforementioned re-adjudication no coercive action be taken against the applicant arising herein. In view hereof, these references are disposed of in terms as above.

A copy of this decision may be sent under the seal of this Court and the signature of the Registrar to the learned Appellate Tribunal, as required per section 133(8) of the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001. Office is instructed to place copy of this order in connected matters.
