ORDER SHEET

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH KARACHI

Crl. Bail Application No.3587 of 2025

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE

For hearing of bail application

11.11.2026

Ms. Rubina Qadir D.P.G.

Applicant and his learned counsel are called absent without intimation or justification.

Perusal of the record reveals that, notwithstanding the indulgence extended to the applicant by way of interim relief, he has persistently failed to pursue the proceedings with the requisite diligence. Since 2025, the matter has suffered repeated adjournments, either on account of his non-appearance or at his instance. The record further reflects that even the issuance of bailable and non-bailable warrants against the applicant has failed to secure his attendance. Such persistent indifference towards the proceedings, particularly after obtaining interim protection from arrest, is indicative of an attempt to prolong the matter while continuing to enjoy the concession extended by this Court.

Judicial discretion, particularly in matters involving extraordinary relief, cannot be permitted to operate as an instrument of procrastination or be exploited to frustrate the orderly administration of criminal justice. An applicant who invokes the discretionary jurisdiction of the Court is under a corresponding obligation to pursue his remedy with diligence and bona fides. The applicant’s repeated defaults, viewed cumulatively, unmistakably demonstrate his unwillingness to prosecute the application. No justification, therefore, survives for its further retention on the docket.

Consequently, this bail application is dismissed for non-prosecution, and the interim protection earlier extended to the applicant stands recalled. Office shall communicate this order to the learned trial Court for information and necessary action in accordance with law.

JUDGE