O R D E R.

AMJAD ALI SAHITO, J:- Through this Criminal Revision Application, the applicants/accused have impugned the order dated 26.08.2025, passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Tharparkar at Mithi, in Criminal Transfer Application No.13 of 20205 (Re: Kanji Singh v. Faiz Muhammad & others), whereby the application under section 528 Cr.P.C filed by the respondent Kanji Singh was allowed. Being aggrieved, the applicants/accused have approached this Court seeking setting aside of the impugned order passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Tharparkar At Mithi.

Today the applicant No.1 Faiz Muhammad is present in person and his counsel is called absent and no intimation has been received. Same was position on last date of hearing, which shows that the learned counsel for the applicant is not interested to pursue with the matter.

From the perusal of the record, it appears that the learned Sessions Judge, Tharparkar at Mithi transferred the case from one Court to another on the ground that both FIRs had arisen out of the same incident, and propriety demanded that such cases be decided by one Court so as to avoid conflicting judgments. Hence, the order passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Tharparkar at Mithi does not suffer from any illegality or material irregularity; therefore, the instant Criminal Miscellaneous Application is hereby dismissed in limine.
