Mr. Abdul Jalil Zubedi A.A.G.

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: On 17.11.2014 in presence of petitioners' counsel, the Court observed that the matter pertains to the terms and conditions of the service and jurisdiction of this court under constitutional jurisdiction is barred. The learned counsel for the Petitioners had sought time to satisfy this court, thereafter, the matter was fixed on 28.01.2015 but the counsel for the petitioners was called absent.

2. In fact the Petitioners have approached this court for suspension of the provisional seniority list of Auxiliary Worker which was issued on 22.05.2012. They have further prayed that previous seniority list should be prevailed. If there was any issue of seniority or objection on the provisional seniority list, the appropriate remedy was to file objections before the competent authority, thereafter, further proceedings may be conducted but in this case, the petitioners have directly approached and filed this constitution petition against the Provisional Seniority List which in our view is not maintainable. Petition is dismissed along with pending application.
