Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: This matter was fixed on 25.05.2016 but nobody was present for the petitioner, therefore, it was adjourned with direction to issue notice to the petitioner for his presence on the next date. Again on 12.08.2016, nobody was present and this Court issued intimation to the petitioner to ensure his presence on the next date. Despite service of notice, the petitioner is called absent today also and only Mr. Qamar Ahmed Shaikh, Advocate, is present for respondent No.5. In fact the petitioner has challenged the letter dated 04.11.2011 issued by respondent No.5 to the petitioner to clarify the position that if a post is transferable then he may be able to retain either the post of District Attorney or the post of Vice Principal. He was called upon to clarify the position within seven days. The letter shows that no adverse order was passed against the petitioner except to calling upon him to explain his position for further proceedings which letter has been assailed through this Constitution Petition. The petition is premature, therefore, it is dismissed with pending applications.
