Mr.Zafar Alam holding brief for Mr.Sajid Bashir, Advocate for the Respondent No.3.

Shaikh Liaquat Hussain, Standing Counsel.

Muhammad Ali Mazhar,J The petitioner was appointed on temporary basis for 89 days in the respondent No.2 establishment on 12.5.2010 and his last contract was expired on 13.6.2012. He approached this court for regularization of his service. The respondent No.2 has filed the comments in which it is clearly stated that the petitioner was appointed on contract basis. So far as the regularization is concerned, 02 posts of Lower Division Clerk were vacant at that time when 05 contingent staff members were already working, therefore, the most appropriate candidates were regularized and the petitioner's case could not be included due to poor performance, lack of interest in office matters and most importantly his ill-behaviour, late comings and absence from duty. No rejoinder is available on record in rebuttal of these allegations. The petitioner and his counsel are called absent, which shows that the petitioner has lost interest in the mater. The petition is dismissed along with listed applications.
