Federation of Pakistan & others......Respondents

Date of hearing: 31.08.2016

Mr. Jaffer Raza, Advocate for Appellant. M/S Agha Faisal and Mr. Riaz Munir, Advocates for Respondents No.2 and 3. Mr. Shaikh Liaquat Hussain, Standing Counsel.

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: The appellant has challenged the order dated 06.09.2013 passed by the learned Single Judge of this Court in Suit No.908/2013 whereby the injunction application filed by the appellant was dismissed. In fact through the injunction application, the appellant wanted the suspension of the termination letter dated 10.07.2013. After arguing at some length, the learned counsel for appellant as well as the respondents No.2 and 3 and the learned Standing Counsel have mutually agreed that this appeal may be disposed of with some directions to the parties to file their proposed issues and/or consent issues before the learned Single Judge in pending suit and after settlement of issues, the plaintiff may move an application for appointment of Commissioner to record the evidence so that the matter may be disposed of as soon as earlier. Since all the learned counsel have agreed to the above modality, therefore, this High Court Appeal is disposed of accordingly alongwith the pending application.
