Mr. M. A. Qazi, advocate in Cr.A. No.304/2006 a/w

Learned counsel for the appellants after addressing the Court for quite some time and after going through the statement of appellants under Section 342 Cr.P.C have contended that charge has not been properly framed and requested that case may be remanded to the trial court for framing afresh charge. Learned counsel for the State and the counsel for the appellants have read the charge and jointly state that the ingredients of Section 222 Cr.P.C are missing.

In view of the above by consent it is ordered that the charge should be reframed, keeping in view the ingredients of Section 222 Cr.P.C as on the face of it certain particulars are missing from the charge. These appeals are allowed and the case is remanded to the trial court. The charge should be framed by the VIIth A.D.J (South), Karachi on Saturday i.e 03.9.2016 on which date the accused should be present before the said Court. After framing the fresh charge parties may make request in writing that they want to lead additional evidence. Trial court is directed to expeditiously dispose of this case on merits.

Both the appeals are disposed in above terms.
