Present:

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J.
Abdul Maalik Gaddi, J.

Rahat Hussain Petitioner

Versus

Oil & Gas Development
Company Limited & another Respondents

21.10.2016.

None present for the petitioner.
Mr. Shaikh Liaquat Hussain Standing Counsel.

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J. In fact the petitioner has challenged the Office Memorandum dated 09.12.2015 and 18.12.2015 issued by the HR Manager of respondent No.1, whereby the Notification regarding shifting of seniority of the petitioner was withdrawn. The learned Standing Counsel submits that respondent No.1 is a limited company which has no Statutory Rules of Service nor the petitioner has attached any copy of Statutory Rules with the petition.

2. Besides, the issue as to whether respondent No.1 has Statutory Rules of Service or not, the petitioner has raised issue of seniority, which cannot be decided by this court and the proper remedy is to approach the department for maintaining proper seniority amongst their employees. In paragraph No.8 of the petition, it is stated that after receiving the Office Memorandum dated 09.12.2015, the petitioner immediately on 14.12.2015, sent representation to the Managing Director/CEO, which is pending.

3. As a result of above discussion, this petition is disposed of with the directions to the Chief Executive Officer of respondent No.1

to decide the pending representation of the petitioner, if any, within sixty (60) days, after providing ample opportunity of hearing to the petitioner.

4. The petition is disposed of accordingly.

Copy of this order may be communicated to the learned Standing Counsel for compliance.
