JUDGEMENT

Nazar Akbar.J.- This case was reserved for judgment on 5.10.2016. Learned counsel for the Defendants has argued that the Plaintiff has no evidence in support of the claims raised in his pleadings. He neither come forward for evidence nor filed even exparte proof. I have perused the order sheet and noted that this suit has been listed for final disposal since 6.7.2011 for several dates. The Defendants have subsequently filed an application under Rule 159 S.C.C.R, which was allowed on 18.3.2014 with directions to file written statement within 15 days but they did not file written statement. Therefore, the case was again listed for final disposal. Then again counsel for the Plaintiff and the Plaintiff, both remained absent on every date and even affidavit-in-exparte proof has not been filed. Today again even Plaintiff is not present in Court for examination.

In view of the above, this suit is dismissed for want of evidence.
