10.10.2016

Ch. Muhammad Ashraf Khan, Advocate for the petitioner
Respondent No.1 Raja Tariq Mehmood is present in person

After lengthy and valuable submissions by learned counsel for the petitioner, as well as, from respondent No.1, it concluded that the controversy in the matter would be more expeditiously and appropriately resolved, if the Appeal No.12(II) of 2014 pending before the full bench of NIRC be proceeded without any further delay, so that the worker's long pending claim can be addressed.

With the mutual consent of Ch. Muhammad Ashraf Khan, Advocate for the petitioner and respondent No.1 present in person, NIRC to proceed with the above referred appeal as expeditiously as possible preferably conclude within 120 days.

Learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the instant petition, which is hereby disposed of with direction to NIRC to proceed with the Appeal No. 12(II) of 2014 as aforesaid. Learned counsel submits that while appeal before NIRC was filed after delay, NIRC to condone the delay, which could be legally condoned through the filing of the instant petition, instead. Order accordingly.

Petition is disposed of in the above terms.
