In view of the earlier petition filed by the present petitioner bearing CP No.D-2065/2012 which is still pending and in the said petition Government of Sindh through Home Secretary, Chief Secretary Government of Sindh as well as I.G Sindh are party. All respondents in this petition are employees of Government of Sindh but this time Government of Sindh has not been impleaded. Earlier petition is pending before Division Bench and present one is preferred before the Single Bench. Not only that the petitioner impleaded Government functionary by name as respondent No.3 to 6 and petitioner has failed to explain how a constitution petition against government officials be filed by name without impleading the Government of Sindh. This petition was filed on 21.1.2015 and the government officials were unnecessarily bothered through notice to them and they were compelled to file their comments.
