This petition has been filed against the concurrent findings given by the Rent Controller as well as Appellate Form. The Constitutional jurisdiction of this court in rental matters is extremely narrow as held in the case law reported in 2001 SCMR 338 and 2014 YLR 2331.

In the given circumstances when there are concurrent findings of courts below, and review of the impugned order shows that neither it is based on non-reading or misreading of evidence, erroneous assumption of facts, misrepresentation of law, excess or abuse of jurisdiction or arbitrary exercise of powers.

The Constitutional Petition is accordingly dismissed in the light of the above referred judgments.
