It has also been acknowledged by the applicant that the respondent No.1 has already filed Guardianship Application No. 30 of 2016 before the concerned Family Court at Dadu, which is fixed for hearing on 23.12.2016 on which date present applicant Mst. Nazeeran Begum will appear in that case and on that day all minors will be present before the concerned Guardian Court to meet their real mother. In this regard, learned Guardian Judge will also consider this fact that if it is observed during meeting that an estrangement seems to be created between real mother and the minors, then the learned Judge seized of the matter will pass appropriate orders of tentative nature by invoking Section 12 of the Guardian and Wards Act.

15.12.2016.

Mr. Akram Sahito, Associate of Mr. Altaf Hussain Chandio, who represents the petitioners.

Mr. Sher Muhammad Laghari, State Counsel.

Today, parawise comments have been filed by official respondents, in which they have denied that any harassment is caused to petitioners by official respondents, while undertaking that police officials will provide protection to the petitioners, if they are approached with such a request. In this regard, already on 02.11.2016 an order has been passed.

Today despite directions, private respondents are not present nor the concerned SHO. The contents of petition are somewhat extraordinary, according to which a Jirga was held by private respondents in which it was decided that sister of petitioner No.2 will be given in marriage to the brother-in-law of respondent No.8.

For the time being and subject to the reply of private respondents, I hold that any such Jirga, if held, was void ab initio and nullity in the eyes of law and therefore, decision taken in the said purported Jirga is also patently illegal.

Seeing the conduct of the concerned SHO, who was directed to appear twice in earlier orders alongwith private respondents, it is just and proper that office should issue Bailable Warrant of arrest in the sum of Rs.30,000/- for the concerned SHO P.S Pabjo, District Shaheed Benazirabad, with further directions to the concerned SSP to ensure that respondents No.8 and 9 (Nizamuddin and Nasarullah), who were directed to be present in Court, are present on next date of hearing without fail, failing which necessary action shall be taken against the other senior police officials as well.

To come up on 20.12.2016 at 12:30 p.m.

For Regular Hearing.

15.12.2016.

Mr. Noor Ahmed Memon, Advocate for respondent No.1.

Mr. Ashfaqe Nabi Kazi, Assistant A.G.

On last date of hearing, one Mr. Riaz Ahmed Memon, Labour Officer of the applicant, appeared and requested for some time to engage a Counsel.

Though in the last order of 23.11.2016 it has been observed that on 15.04.2011 similar request was made, but only in the interest of justice time was granted to the applicant. Originally it was a IInd Appeal of 1996 which was later converted into a Revision Application vide order dated 29.10.2008. The issue involved in the matter is about payment of levy to the respondent No.1-Market Committee Badin. If the record of present proceeding is perused, it appears that applicant's side is not pursuing the matter in a diligent manner; rather there is negligence on their part.

In these circumstances, instant Revision Application is dismissed for non-prosecution.

15.12.2016.

None present.

On 02.12.2016 when this matter came up for the first time, a detailed order has been passed wherein respondents were restrained from causing any harassment to the petitioners. Office note shows that neither copies of the petition are provided nor cost is paid, enabling the office to undertake further steps in the case. It appears that the earlier order has served the objective of the petitioners.

Today none is present on behalf of petitioners to explain such a default on their part as mentioned in the office note and observed hereinabove. Such a delinquent behavior on the part of petitioners is not acceptable, as if anyone, who sets the law in motion, is also liable to complete other formalities. In one of my decisions passed in C.P No.S-1819 of 2016, I have held that such type of cases are consuming time of genuine litigants and therefore, such type of litigation in which bona fide of the petitioner is highly questionable should be discouraged.

Consequently, this petition is dismissed being de void of any merits.

1st Appeal No. 29 of 2016

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE
-------------	--------------------------------------

For orders on C.M.A 2140/16

15.12.2016.

Mr. Faisal Nadeem Abro, Advocate for appellant.

It is contended, inter alia, that appellant is behind bars and therefore, his affidavit could not have been sworn for which learned Counsel has moved an application for appointment of Commissioner so that he can administer oath to appellant for swearing his affidavit in Jail.

Subject to the point of maintainability of this Appeal that whether an appeal of the nature can be filed without filing an affidavit, this application for appointment of Commissioner is granted. Additional Registrar of this Court is directed to appoint any of the Court officials, who is authorized in this behalf for completing swearing of affidavits formalities, to visit the jail alongwith the appellant's Counsel for the purposes of swearing affidavit. This exercise be completed within a week from today.

Before next date of hearing, the Counsel is directed to file all such documents under his statement which show that when the summary suit proceeding had commenced, the present appellant was already behind the bars and for that reason he was unable to swear proper affidavit which became the main ground for passing of the impugned judgment.

At this juncture, it is necessary to observe that this is a first appeal, which is statutory right given to a person and on next date of hearing the Court is to take into account the fact that whether such a statutory right in favour of a person/appellant can be diluted merely on the ground that affidavit of the appellant is not available with the appeal and the reason for non-swearing such an affidavit is that the appellant is behind the bars. In this regard, force majeure factors shall also be considered by the Court before passing the order on the maintainability of instant petition.

To come up after winter vacation.
