Today, both the petitioners are present in Court. Respondent No.6-Syed Naseer Ahmed Shah as well as respondent No.7-Lutuf Ali, who are fathers of petitioner No.2 and 1 respectively, are also present in Court. Despite efforts, the petitioner No.2-Mst.Iram Bibi is very reluctant to meet her mother-Mst.Tasleem, who is present in Court. She is not even ready to meet her mother in the office of A.A.G Sindh under the lady police supervision. At this juncture, Ms. Razia Ali Zaman, the learned Counsel representing the petitioners submits that petitioner No.2 being sui juris cannot be compelled by anyone including her parents to have a meeting with them. She also shows her apprehensions about the safety and security of both the petitioners as today in Court the relatives of lady petitioner are present. However, Mr. Roshan Ali Azeem Mallah and Ms. Perveen Chachar, the learned Counsel representing the private respondents, have controverted the above position and submitted that petitioner No.2 is continuously under pressure and that is why refusing to meet her mother. At this juncture, it has also been stated by the learned A.A.G that both these petitioners have also been directed to be present before the learned Sukkur Bench on 13.12.2016 in Criminal Miscellaneous Application No.372/2016.

Be that as it may, the nature of this proceeding is limited only to the extent of protecting life and liberty of a citizen. However, it appears today that a hostile environment persists on both sides and in these circumstances I direct the concerned police officials to ensure that today both these petitioners reach their place of abode/destination under the supervision of Police, so that no untoward incident should take place. Police officials are further directed that if anyone found taking law in his hands or creating any trouble or law and order situation, should be dealt with strictly in accordance with law. With these observations and directions, the present constitutional petition stands disposed of.
