Mr. Abdul Razzaq Abbasi advocate for the applicants.
Mr. Ghulam Shabbir Baloch, Assistant Attorney General.

Syed Imran Ali Zaidi, applicant No.2 is present but Syed Husnain Raza, applicant No.1 could not come due to illness of his mother. Learned counsel argued that applicants were granted interim pre-arrest bail vide order dated 12.12.2014 in crime No. 72/2013, lodged under Section 409, 468, 471, 109, PPC r/w Section 5(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, at P.S. FIA, Crime Circle, Karachi. During pendency of this bail application, learned counsel argued that vide order dated 02.03.2017 passed in case No. 10/2014 by the Special Court (Central-I), Karachi in FIR No. 72/2013, the applicants have already been acquitted. The copy of acquittal order is attached with the statement, presented on 08.09.2017 by the applicants' counsel. After going through the acquittal order, learned Assistant Attorney General has no objection. The bail application is dismissed as withdrawn. The surety may be discharged on proper verification and identification. The pending applications are also disposed of.
