Learned AAG files comments of respondent No.4, taken on record, copy thereof provided to other side.

Since this petition pertains to Province of Sindh and Director General Pakistan Rangers, albeit, notice was issued to AAG; at this juncture, it is pertinent to direct that in all petitions wherein Province of Sindh or Federation is arrayed as party office shall ensure that before receiving that petition one complete set of that petition shall be handed over to the office of Assistant Attorney General and Additional Advocate General Sindh with endorsement of receiving the same; as in many petitions, which are filed before this Court, petitioners are seeking bail in NAB matters, but after notice it is always claimed by the Assistant Attorney General as well Additional Advocate General that they have not received memo of petition. In many petitions question of liberty of person is involved, therefore, in constitutional matters in same way as usual practice in criminal matters such as bail applications, at initial stage before fixing the same in Court its copy shall be provided to the offices of learned Assistant Attorney General and Additional Advocate General and learned Assistant Attorney General and Additional Advocate General shall ensure that on first date of hearing comments are filed. Further, in cases wherein petitioners are seeking quashment of F.I.Rs. and orders passed under section 22-A & B Cr.P.C. are challenged in similar fashion, copies shall be provided to the A.P.G. office and office shall issue notice to APG, even if, it is not ordered before fixing the same in Court. Copy of this order be communicated to Assistant Attorney General, Additional Advocate General, Additional Prosecutor General at Hyderabad as well President High Court Bar Association, Hyderabad for information and compliance.

To come up on 21.09.2017.
