Comments of learned IInd Additional Sessions Judge, Badin received, which is taken on record.

Learned counsel for applicant submits that he would be satisfied and shall not press this Criminal Transfer Application, if trial Court is directed to provide protection to the complainant on each and every date of hearing as the complainant has great apprehension that the accused party on the date of hearing would attack upon him. Learned D.P.G present in court submits that as and when the applicant would approach to the concerned SHO with regard to apprehension at the hands of the accused party, he shall provide legal protection as per law.

In view of above this Criminal Transfer Application stands disposed of with direction to the concerned SHO to provide protection to the complainant as per law.
