that after conducting raid and examining of the record, the contended that no action has been taken against the petitioners. Since no action has been taken so far, the petitioners do not want to proceed further with this clarity that in case any action is taken against them they will have the right to move this court for the resurrection of these petitions and or may file fresh proceedings. Mr. Abdul Mujeeb Pirzada, counsel for the respondent No.4 has no objection to this statement. The petitions are disposed of in the above terms.
