Mr. Amel Khan Kasi advocate for the plaintiff
Khawaja Shams-ul-Islam advocate for the defendant

In the first round the hearing of this case was started but during course of arguments, learned counsel for the plaintiff submitted that plaintiff will be satisfied if the defendant agrees that plaintiff will not be dispossessed/evicted from the suit property without due course of law on which learned counsel for the defendant himself pointed out the written statement as well as counter affidavit filed by the defendant in which specific plea has been taken that defendant being a corporate entity has neither threatened to take the law into its hand nor it is the case of the plaintiff for its forcible dispossession from the suit land.

In the second round when this matter was taken up, the plaintiff's counsel has filed statement in writing in both the suits for the same relief. He also mentioned the name of Khawaja Shams-ul-Islam advocate in the statement for his signature but Khawaja Shams-ul-Islam, Advocate again reiterated the statement made in the written statement and counter affidavit. Mr. Shahnawaz Jamali, Management Executive (Legal Affairs) of the National Refinery Ltd. is also present in court. In view of this statement, by consent, both the suits are disposed of along with pending applications with the order that plaintiff shall not be dispossessed/evicted from the suit property without due process of law.
