Mr.Khalid Jawed Khan, Advocate for the Plaintiff.

Dr.Shahnawaz, Advocate for the Defendant No.2

Mr.Umer Zad Gul, D.A.G.

On 31.3.2015 the matter was fixed for orders on injunction application. The order reflects that at that time the appeal was pending before Commissioner Appeals and the recovery notice was issued. The court as an interim measure passed the order that till next date of hearing the defendants are restrained from effecting any recovery from the plaintiff on the basis of demand notice dated 30.3.2015.

This suit is pending since 2015. The learned counsel for the plaintiff submits that during pendency of this suit, the Commissioner Appeals has decided the appeal against the appellant and now the appeal is pending before learned Appellate Tribunal Inland Revenue. Learned counsel for the plaintiff submits that some directions may be issued to the learned Appellate Tribunal Inland Revenue to decide the appeal and during this period the Tax Department may be restrained not to take any coercive action. Dr.Shahnawaz, Advocate agrees to this proposal.

By consent the suit is disposed of accordingly. The learned Tribunal Inland Revenue may expedite the proceedings and decide the appeal preferable within a period of 30 days.
