Mr. Wajid Ali Khaskheli Advocate files Vakalatnama on behalf of respondents No.5 and 6; whereas the learned AAG files comments of respondent No.1, taken on record.

It appears that respondents No.5 and 6 have contracted marriage by freewill. Respondent No.6 present submits that she and her husband (respondent No.5) are feeling danger from the petitioners, therefore, they left Kotri and had gone in hiding. Petitioner No.1 submits that they merely want to know that their daughter is well and they also wanted to meet with her. When this question was put to respondent No.6, she blankly refused to meet with her parents / petitioners and stated that she feels comfortable with her husband and she also wants to live away from the petitioners. These respondents, in fact sought protection from the illegal designs of the petitioners.

In the given circumstances, this petition is disposed of with direction to the area police to provide legal protection to respondents No.5 and 6 against the alleged harassment / danger to their lives through the hands of the petitioners. Further, the police officials present are directed to provide a safe passage to respondents No.5 and 6 to reach their destination. The petitioners present are directed to refrain from taking law in their own hands and contacting the respondents No.5 and 6 aiming to cause any loss to their lives or belongings.
