Learned AAG files comments of respondents No.2 and 11, taken on record.

By this petition, petitioners seek protection from the official respondents. Learned AAG submits that there is private dispute in between the private parties. This petition is pending since 2016 where this Court has constantly issued orders for extending protection and calling upon the official respondents to file statements as to any alleged harassment caused to the petitioners. This is utter abuse of the process of law, where on every date of hearing a number of police officials appear before this Court on the whim of petitioners.

In the given circumstances, official respondents are directed to provide legal protection to the petitioners as they provide the same to other citizens / individuals in accordance with law. In case of private / civil dispute as apparent in the instant petition, petitioners and the private respondents should resolve the same through legal process without taking law in their own hands.

The petition stands disposed of in above terms.
