Learned counsel pointed out CMA No.29855/2016 filed under Section 151 C.P.C in which he has prayed that Nazir be directed to return Rs.633,974,000/- to the respondent No.3 as this amount was in excess to the amount which in fact SSGCL had to deposit in terms of the provision contained under WPPF. He has also attached various documents and annexure R-3/2 is the calculation of the worker's profit participation fund in which some excess amount has also been shown in the statement. Learned Additional Attorney General as well as Additional Advocate General both have gone through the application and statement and have no objection if the Nazir is directed to examine the financial statement and the amount deposited by the SSGCL and if Rs.633,974,000/- is found to be deposited in excess as claimed in annexure R-3/2 the same may be released to the authorized person of the respondent No.3 on proper verification and identification but after notice to the petitioner who is called absent today.
