Through these High Court Appeals, the appellant has basically challenged the Stereotype order dated 20.12.2016, passed by the learned single Judge of this court in the execution applications. Learned executing court observed that JDs are raising objections to the execution application which can only be considered if the JDs in the first instance deposit the remaining decretal amount. JDs were directed by the executing Court to deposit the balance amount as claimed in column 7 of the execution application. Being aggrieved and dissatisfied, the appellants had challenged this order.

Now the learned counsel for the appellant submits that during the pendency of these High Court Appeals, the matter has been resolved so the appellants do not want to proceed further. None present for the private respondents. However, the counsel for respondent No.3, National Insurance Corporation, endorses his no objection to the withdrawal of these appeals.

The aforesaid appeals are disposed of accordingly along with all pending applications. Office is directed to place copy of this order in the above appeals.
