Both learned counsel request that CMA No.339/2017 may be taken up for orders which has been moved with the request that appropriate orders may be passed for referring to the dispute for arbitration by Conciliation & Arbitration Board for Pakistan, Shia Imami Ismaili, Main Jamat Khana, Garden East, Karachi through its Chairman. The petitioner and his counsel and the respondent No.2 and his counsel all have signed this application. So far as the respondent No.1 is concerned, today Mr. Muhammad Ehsan, counsel for the respondents has filed the board resolution in which the respondent No.1 authorized the respondent No.2 to act on behalf of the company, whereas one power of attorney is also attached which has been executed by respondent No.3 in favour of respondent No.2. Virtually, the respondent No.2 is representing the respondent Nos.1 and 3 and appropriate authorities are attached with the vakalatnama of Mr. Muhammad Ehsan which is taken on record. By consent this application is allowed. Let the dispute between the parties may be referred to the aforesaid Conciliation & Arbitration Board and if any decision/award is rendered, the same may be placed in court for further orders. CMA No.339/2017 is disposed of.
