Mr. Muhammad Iqbal Awan, Dy. Prosecutor General.
Complainant Riaz Hussain Kalhoro present in person.

- - - - -

The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the complainant and the abductee both have been examined by the learned trial Court and only evidence of police officials is to be recorded. He submits that he will not press the bail application if some directions are issued to the learned trial Court to expedite the proceedings. The Deputy Prosecutor General and the complainant both have no objection to this proposal. Bail application is dismissed as not pressed. However, the learned trial Court is directed to expedite the proceedings and conclude the trial within two months and also submit the compliance report to the hon'ble monitoring Judge of this court. However, it is clarified that if for some reason the trial could not be concluded within the specified time, the applicant may move fresh bail application in the trial Court.
