Respondent No.3 has filed his comments which are taken on record.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he would be satisfied and shall not press this constitutional petition if petitioner is allowed to file appropriate proceedings before the trial court for his premature acquittal.

Learned Asstt:A.G and learned APG have raised no objection to above proposition.

In view of above this constitutional petition is disposed of as not pressed, however with direction to learned trial court that as and when the petitioner files any proceedings with regard to his premature acquittal, the trial court shall decide the same after hearing the parties within 15-days in accordance with law. In the meantime the official respondents shall strictly act in accordance with law
