State Counsel

Dr. Jamal Deen, Addl. Health Secretary, Government of Sindh

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: This matter was fixed on 17.12.2018, when keeping in mind the urgency of the case, learned Addl. A.G. waived the notice for seeking some directions of the Ministry of Health. The petitioner has filed this petition for releasing the funds by the Government of Sindh for the medical treatment of his brother Obaid Raza son of Muhammad Farooq, who is suffering from Aplastic Anaemia disease. Today, Dr. Jamal Deen, Addl. Health Secretary, Government of Sindh, states that the application of the petitioner was forwarded to the Medical Board, Services Hospital, Karachi. The Board has considered the application of the petitioner and recommended for medical treatment of his brother. They have also intimated the cost of entire treatment in the sum of total Rs.44,00,000/-. The Addl. Health Secretary further submits that summary has already been moved to the Chief Minister Sindh for approval of medical expenses.

Since the matter is of grave urgency, therefore, we expect that the Chief Minister Sindh on humanitarian ground will approve the summary within 07 working days so that the treatment of the petitioner's brother may start as soon as possible.

Petition is disposed of accordingly. Copy of this order may be transmitted to the learned Addl. A.G., Principal Secretary of the Chief Minister Sindh, Chief Secretary Sindh and Health Secretary of Government of Sindh to ensure that the summary is approved by the worthy Chief Minister within seven working days.
