Factual controversy decided by the trial Court cannot be decided by this Court in constitution petition. It is admitted fact that question of determination of fair rent is precisely based on the evidence led by the parties. On the determination of the fair rent two Courts have exhausted the jurisdiction to decide question of facts. Learned counsel has not been able to read out any misreading or non-reading and other ground to entertain this constitution petition.

In view of the above, this petition is dismissed alongwith listed applications.
