1. For orders on office objection as at 'A'.
2. For hearing of Main case
3. For hearing of CMA No.9566/2018 (stay)

29.11.2018

Mr. Ashiq Ali Mangan, advocate for the petitioner.

This constitution petition is directed against the concurrent findings of default in payment of rent. The petitioner has not produced single receipt of payment in favour of anybody including the person through whom he claims to become tenant and the person through whom he become tenant is not an owner till to date because his own case of ownership is pending before the Court as stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner is not concerned with civil litigation. He has to vacate the premises and once the suit for specific performance is decreed then the plaintiff of the said suit be get the possession also but until then petitioner cannot be allowed to hold the tenement against the leased owner of the tenement.

In view of the above, petition is dismissed alongwith listed application.
