Mr. Javed Ahmed Rajput, advocate for the petitioner.

This petition against the concurrent findings was filed on 03.2.2016, though the petition was not supposed to be maintainable against the concurrent findings. However, somehow or the other on 31.3.2016 execution application No.8/2014 was suspended and since then this case is hardly proceeded except taking dates. Be that as it may, today learned counsel for the petitioner alongwith petitioner is present before the Court and he says within 90 days from today he will vacate the shop in question, therefore, this petition is dismissed as not pressed with directions to the executing Court that on completion of 90 days from today issue writ of possession with police aid and with permission to break open the locks if by the end of 90 days shop in question is not vacated by the petitioner. Copy of this order may be sent to IInd Civil Judge /ASJ and Rent Controller East, Karachi.
