Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: Petitioners in both petitions have sought directions against the respondent Nos. 1 to 3 to remove the name of the respondent No. 5 from the final list of candidate as according to them they have not eligible to contest the election of Federation of Pakistan Chamber of Commerce & Industries (FPCCI) 2017. Learned Assistant Attorney General pointed out that the dispute pertains to 2017 election whereas by efflux of time, FPCCI 2018 election has already been held and Managing Committee has taken the charge. So he argued that petitions have become infructuous. The record reflects that only notice was issued in these cases and no interim orders are operating against any elections, so we are also of the view that after holding elections of FPCCI 2018, these petitions have become infructuous, however, in future any cause of action arises to the petitioners they may file fresh petitions in accordance with the law. These petitions are dismissed.
