1-4] In both the petitions, various factual controversies and disputed questions of facts have been raised including the contractual obligation arisen from the contracts between the petitioners and the Sindh Education Foundation through individual contracts. We raised query to the learned counsel for the petitioners that how these petitions are maintainable on account of various factual, complicated and disputed questions of facts. Learned counsel after arguing at some length requests that he will avail appropriate remedy which includes filing of suit and does not want to press these petitions, which are dismissed alongwith pending applications. However, the petitioner may file civil suit in accordance with the law.

Office is directed to place a copy of this order in the petition listed above.
