Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: None present for the petitioner. On 28.04.2015, the learned Division Bench of this court referred to the statement filed by the counsel for NADRA in which it was stated that the petitioner and other family members may visit nearest NADRA Centre so that request for issuance of CNIC be processed. Since on that date nobody was present for the petitioner, the matter was adjourned. Again on 11.08.2015, the counsel for the petitioner was present and he sought time to seek instructions, but today he is called absent. The petition is disposed of with the directions that if the petitioner is interested to get CNIC, he may approach to the NADRA Office in compliance of the directions given in the order dated 28.04.2015.
