Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: The petitioner has sought the directions against the respondent No.4 to accept his documents as candidate of constituency No.37 as General Councilor. He has also prayed that he may be allowed to contest local body election in new constituency No.37 as General Councilor. The election has already been held and returned candidates have been declared much earlier hence at this stage filing nomination form or seeking permission and directions to allow the petitioner to contest election does not arise, however, if the petitioner has any grievance for the transfer of his vote he may apply to the concerned authority to do the needful but in this regard also no direction may be issued. Petition is dismissed.
