Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J.:        The prayer clause show that this petition is beyond the scope of constitutional jurisdiction of this court in which various legal/factual disputes have been raised which require evidence. The petitioner has also sought recovery of their alleged outstanding principal amount together with costs, expenses, compensatory damages as well as insurance claim in US dollars. The appropriate relief can be claimed by filing civil suit rather than approaching this court in its constitutional jurisdiction. The petition is dismissed in limine.
